

The Jane Goodall Institute

28 May 2016

Dear Jordi,

This is to thank you so very much for coming to meet with me in Girona. It was a great honour for me and I so much enjoyed our conversation about music. It has always played a hugely important part in my private life. Nurturing my inner spiritual self.

The idea of the music you have written is fabulous. Celebrating the beauty of Nature. Condoning the way we humans are damaging her. And then providing a gleam of hope for the future.

© Mark Maglio 1998

Term fishing for termites derived from Hugo Van Lawick, 1964 photo

It would be marvellous if I could be there for the inaugural performance in Barcelona - though it seems very unlikely. But I do hope to hear it played somewhere. Even a recording.

I finally got home to the UK last night. Late, as the plane was late. And before sleeping I played Mend Violin Concerto!

Thank you so much, Jordi

Until next time,

Warm regards,

Jane